EX LIBRIS

Presented

by the Class of '53

Dedication

We appreciate the many sacrifices you, dear Parents, have so generously made that we might get a good Catholic education. We assure you that your unselfish efforts in our behalf will not have been in vain. It is with this sincere gratitude in view, that we, the class of '53, dedicate this issue of the BASILITE to you.

Appreciation

We, the class of '53 would like to express our gratitude to our priests, who have done so much to make our lives richer in spiritual things, and to our teachers who have aided in our intellectual growth. We will never forget your thoughtful care and concern over our well-being, nor the extra responsibility that you shouldered in order that we might have additional advantages. Your service to us is one that we can never repay by a mere "thank you"; therefore, we shall ask God to bless a hundredfold, you, who have done so much for us. God bless you.

Our Pastor

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edwin P. Fussenegger, M.A., LL.D.

To the Graduates of 1953

My dear Young People,

In the season of graduation it is not uncommon to see the picture of a graduate standing upon a threshold and looking upon a world of promise. The glittering rays of the rising sun add to the picture the warmth of welcome, and somewhere around the portal there is emblazoned the word OPPORTUNITY whilst in the distance DESTINY is spelled out.

With your diploma in hand as a symbol of achievement, you find OPPORTUNITY presenting itself to you in the world into which you are entering; but, remember, OPPORTUNITY is not a blind force nor a situation which presents itself by mere chance. The OPPORTUNITY which comes to you in life is the happening of all that is woven into the wisdom of Divine Providence, and it offers itself for your earthly advancement as well as for your eternal DESTINY. DESTINY! What a word to propose to youth!

If youth be engrossed only with the materialistic views of life, DESTINY extends itself only into the few years that lie ahead; but to the Catholic Graduate DESTINY is something which lies beyond the clouds and rests in the eternal home of Heaven.

Your Catholic education will enable you to take your place alongside your fellow men in the world, but it also fits you for the acquisition of eternal happiness. Your OPPORTUNITY is filled with the blessings and graces from God. Your DESTINY by the aid of those graces, is in the Mansion of God.

The wise person never loses sight of these truths. Please, therefore, remember them all your life, and never forget that you are made for Heaven. Likewise remember the saying of Saint Augustine, "God made us, without us; but He will not save us without us."

May God and His ever-blessed Mother be gracious to you forever.

Sincerely,

Monsignor Fussenegger
